

CleanEquity Monaco 2011, March 3rd & 4th – Addressing Marine Transport Issues

CleanEquity Monaco, the forum for emerging cleantech companies to present to specialist financial & strategic investors, policy makers, end-users and international & trade media is happy to announce its partnership with Carbon War Room for Clean Equity Monaco 2011.

The Carbon War Room - a Washington DC-based, global non-profit - harnesses the power of entrepreneurs to implement market-driven solutions to climate change. Founded by Richard Branson and other leading entrepreneurs, its approach is to identify the barriers that are preventing market-based scale up of climate change solutions and work with stakeholders to remove them and promote the free flow of capital for emerging technologies.

Part of the CleanEquity agenda will be devoted to marine transport efficiency and pollution. A plenary session chaired by Peter Boyd of the Carbon War Room will highlight the issues; a selection of companies will then present technologies designed to deal with them.
