

CleanEquity Monaco 2011 – Registration Now Open!

London, UK, 29 November 2011. CleanEquity Monaco, launches its new website and registration for the March 3rd - 4th 2011 event is now open.

Now in its 4th year, CleanEquity has become the ultimate forum for emerging cleantech companies of all nationalities to present their credentials to specialist financial & strategic investors, established industry players, key policy makers, government officials, end users and national, international & trade media.

Created by His Serene Highness Prince Albert II of Monaco and Mungo Park, Chairman of Innovator Capital Ltd, the conference provides an exceptional platform for the world's next generation clean technologies. His Serene Highness remains a strong supporter, providing state backing and participating in CleanEquity Monaco by addressing the assembly and presenting the prestigious CleanEquity Monaco Awards to the three foremost presenting companies.

The conference showcases up to 40 of the worlds most exciting next generation clean technology companies. Over the 2 days there are 4 plenary sessions chaired and debated by leaders in the cleantech field and workshops tailored to delegates and presenting companies. The Gala Dinner is held in the world renowned Salle Empire at the Hôtel de Paris; one of many impeccable opportunities to network, conduct business and share ideas.

Experienced corporate finance and communications firms have been carefully selected as partners for CleanEquity Monaco. Innovator Capital welcomes back: Biocode Incubation (Tokyo) & Invest Securities (Paris). The Public relations, media and communications partnership comprises: PR Newswire (New York), Allen & Caron (New York), Carbon International (London), Alize RP (Paris) & Communications & Manufacturing Association of India (New Delhi)

Those seeking a presenting company role, sponsorship & partnership opportunities, delegate or general enquiries, please see the contact details below or visit the conference website: www.cleanequitymonaco.com
